

It was an AU where Sun Wukong was cursed by Lady Bone Demon instead of possessed - this caused him to turn insane. The creator also said that this caused a perma-eclipse to happen (making everything cold/winter), and that a big focus was a slow-burn friendship between MK and Macaque.

Other information about the AU that is confirmed canon:

Sun Wukong did something to MK to cause him chronic pain

Sun Wukong may have caused MK to change into a monkey

Sun Wukong is being hunted down by MK and Macaque

Sun Wukong tore part of Macaque's ear off and tried to kill him

As far as I'm aware, it was never made into a fan fic. The content was the creator posting art about it and sharing information in snippets.

The creator deleted everything at some point, but this is their Tumblr account (please don't bother them). In the comments of this recent post, they said that: "I just lost interest [in the Coldest Winter AU] and id like to distance myself from the project".

I did find some archives of the creator's art for the AU:

I also found a ref sheet of Winter AU Macaque that seems to have been commissioned by the creator:

This is an awesome animation/animatic of the AU. It's not made by the original creator, but I think it is at least partly responsible for the AU becoming so popular:

There's also a lot of other fan art for the AU made by other people. Here's some I found:
